Dear Friends,

With such a long winter, everything seems late this Spring! Whatever happened to "April showers bring May flowers?" Seems like we had showers all through May and now at the end of May we are still hoping for some warm weather; I suppose that June will leap forward into instant summer! Easter was about the latest it could have been (Sunday after the full moon after Spring equinox, and the full moon was April 18, late!), and so Pentecost (50 days after Easter) is also later than usual.

However, having Pentecost as late as June 12 this year allows us to combine this church celebration of wind and fire of the Holy Spirit with the final day of Sunday School and the Picnic! We hope that everyone will wear something red that day, and most of all carry the fire of the Holy Spirit with us. The worship will be "intergenerational," meaning that we will have people of all ages doing different parts... please say yes, if you are asked to play a part!

We said farewell in May to our administrator Kristy Taylor who has a larger church position waiting for her in Minnesota, as well as plans to reunite with family there and welcome a new baby into her family in November. Heather Ryan will ably take over the reins in the office; though summer is a bit slower, we welcome the opportunity to keep things well organized. We also say farewell to the Niswongers/Wollheims this June and are so grateful for the girls' lighthearted spirit in the Sunday School and Maria's wonderful leadership for our Concert Series.

Summer is both an opportunity to slow down and an opportunity to relax and receive, to be enriched in the Spirit. From mid-June through July, I will work half time, and will be in the area Wednesday, Thursday, and Sunday morning. I always check my answering machine however, and will get back to you as soon as possible. At the end of July, I will spend another week with Ken Medema for continuing education in music. I hope that you all have some interesting times for rest and spiritual growth as well this summer. With less appointments in our datebooks, let us truly pause and reflect on where God is leading, both individually and collectively. Throughout all the history of faith, God's people speak of being led by the Holy Spirit.... and sometimes we must wait for that leading as a "still small voice" in the quiet times of our days and our calendars. Summertime can be just that. More reading, more pondering, more lounging lazily, as time to wait and listen for prompting from that still small voice. OK, it may come as a summer thunderstorm for some of us! Whichever method God usually comes to you, let's share with each other what God seems to be saying. May we all be blessed with new revelation this summer.

Yours in faith, Ross Varney

Jambo Belleville Church,

(Jambo means hello in our national language of Swahili in Kenya)

YOU are amazing in your support of BEADS for Education. Your most recent donation of $326 will help with stocking our new library. Sue and Ben Heersink have spent countless hours buying books at library book sales from Boston to Newburyport, Then packing sorting and logging the books into our database. THEN getting all the books to Kenya and setting up the reading and book club programs for students and teachers.

We have the only two libraries stocked with great childrens' literature that I have ever seen in Kenya.

IF IT WERE NOT FOR BEADS

I am so glad of beads because of the far they have brought to me. When I got into the Beads organization, I was in class seven. I was in Olgulului Primary School. In that school pupils were not performing well and my dad was not able to take me to a good school because he had not enough money to take me to a performing school. So I stayed in that school until God sent Beads to rescue me from that world of not performing.

So beautiful Beads brought me to Top Ride Academy, which is the best performing school. After completing my primary education, I went to high school where I am sure that my dad couldn't have been able to pay for me (secondary fee).

My dad could have given me out to a husband because my older sisters have been married and they already had four children. My dad did this because he had not enough money to pay for our school fees. Now after my sister completed her primary education (8th grade), she was married, after someone paid her dowry. The dowry was cows which is a sign of wealth in our community. So my dad was happy because of that.

Primary education in our country, it is free so pupils will just read or learn until class eight then those who their parents couldn't pay for their secondary education fee, they will be married (mostly girls and some boys marry). So I am sure if it were not for Beads my dad could have given me out to a husband for him to get more cows for selling.

Surely if it was not for Beads, I could have been a mother of 3 children or more than three because I have a friend who completed primary education with me and now she is a mother of five kids and she is married to an old man of about 72 years and she is around 19 years old.

I do appreciate a lot Beads and grant my thanks Beads organization and my sponsor who is paying for my school fees. May god expand your boundaries as Beads organization and add more years for the Bead organization.

Thanks Beads.

Children's Sunday

and

Annual Picnic! June 12th

Come out and celebrate with the children on PENTECOST SUNDAY!

Sunday June 12th will be the last day of Sunday school before the summer break. The Children of Belleville Sunday School will be celebrating the Spirit as it comes upon us with a special Worship service. We would love to have every one wear red on this Sunday. Please join in the service by saying "The Spirit is here" in a different language if you know one or want to learn one!

We will have our annual picnic on the lawn (weather permitting) or indoors in the church. Sunday school will provide the hamburgers, hot dogs, buns and condiments. We will also provide the lemonade and of course the Ice Cream Sunday bar!! Great way to end a dreary winter! Please let one of the teachers know if you can bring a side dish.

On a sad note we will be saying good-bye to Caroline and Elise Wollheim (as well as their parents!) We will miss their energy, humor and eagerness to learn in our classes as well as their enthusiasm in Worship! We hope they will take the lessons of Jesus' Love and Kindness with them as they move on to new and exciting things!

Thank you to the congregation for your support throughout the year.
